 Normalize by dividing by maximum radius or by $\sqrt{A}$ area. Another approach is to use selected points on the object such as circles and corners along with $r$ and $\theta$. For example:

There are other ways to generate signatures.